

Pride, R. S.

[Love Providence, LA]

Apr 16 1902

[Includes a card from the Chapmans which lists which coins do and do not bring a premium.]

Post Providence Jan 6/503

Chapman & Bro

I have some old coins on hand for sale one quarter dollar that was coined in 1853 it is without arrow point to the side of date
it has rays over the eagle
one half dollar coin in 1866
three arrow points in the eagle flaw it is without rays over the eagle it has the Liberty seat please return Rebble
what I can get for them
Your faithful

F. S. Price

UNITED STATES COINS WHICH BRING A PREMIUM.

GOLD

$10, $5, $2½, before 1834, and 1834 with motto on reverse.
$3, 1860 to 1873 inelusive, 1875, 1876, 1877. $1, any date,
buy or sell any quantity, and pay good premium.

SILVER.

DOLLARS—1794 to 1839; 1851, 1852, 1854, 1855, 1856, 1857, 1858, 1895 Philadelphia Mint O. and S. Mint no value.

TRADE DOLLARS, buy at market rates.

HALF DOLLARS—1794 to 1802; 1815, 1836 with edge milled or reeded (like current money), no motto on reverse; has "50 cents" on reverse; the one with letters on edge and 50c. on reverse, and motto over eagle, is of no value. 1851, 1852, 1853 without arrow-beads at side of date, or rays on reverse; the one having these is of no value, dates not given are all common and of no value.

QUARTER DOLLARS—1796, 1804, 1823, 1824, 1827, 1853
without arrow-heads at side of date and no rays on reverse; the one having them is of no value.

TWENTY CENTS—1877, 1878.

DIMES—1796 to 1811, 1822, 1846.

HALF DIMES—1792, 1794 to 1805, 1846.

THREE CENTS SILVER—Star on Obv.; Reverse, C.III.
1863 to 1873.

Mutilated silver bought at market rates.

NICKEL.

FIVE CENTS—1877. THREE CENTS—1877.

CENT—1856 with eagle. 1857 and 1858 are of no value.

COPPER.

CENTS—1793, 1794, 1795, 1796, 1799, 1804, 1809, 1811,
other dates are of value when in very fine condition.

HALF-CENTS—Buy any date or quantity.

FOREIGN COINS.

Buy at market rates all kinds and metals. Old Spanish Silver Coins are only worth their value as metal.
Foreign Copper Coins are worth from one to three cents each; when worn smooth, no value.

S. H. & H. CHAPMAN, COIN DEALERS,
1348 PINE STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

(OVER)

READ THIS before you offer to sell your Coins. These Coins DO NOT bring a Premium.

The following coins are of no value, and when you find what you have are here mentioned, do not trouble the Mint officials or us, about them. The U. S. Mint does not buy Coins and only have for sale the proof sets of the current year and the Series of National Medals.

No value.—1895 Dollars, of O. and S. Mint.

No value.—Half-dollars of any date other than those on other side; 1839 with O over date; 1853 with arrow-heads at side of date.

No value.—Quarter-dollars, 1853 with arrow-heads at side of date, and rays on reverse.

No value.—Twenty cents, 1875 and 1876.

No value.—Dimes, any dates other than those given, unless in very fine condition; if worn, of no value.

No value.—Half-dimes; same remarks as to Dimes.

No value.—Three cents Silver, 1851 to 1862 inclusive.

No value.—Five cents, Nickel, other dates than given on other side; 1883, without cents.

No value.—Three cents, Nickel, head of Liberty.

No value.—Cents, Nickel, 1857 and 1858, with eagle.

No value.—Coins worn smooth, so that date does not show.

INSTRUCTIONS.

Never clean or rub up a coin, no matter how dirty or black it is. Letters desiring an answer must contain a 2-cent stamp. No other Lists issued. Catalogues of recent sales of Coins by auction, showing prices brought, mailed on receipt of 75 cents.

When writing, always state clearly what you have for sale, and how much you want for it.

S. H. & H. CHAPMAN,

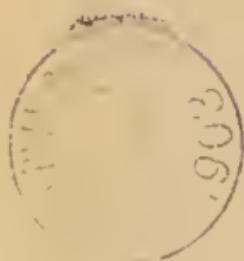

COIN DEALERS,

No. 1348 Pine Street, Philadelphia.

(OVER)

Pride
2⁴/₇

mu 41.3103

Chapman & B. 510
Philadelphia
Pa.

Pride, R.S.

Mr. 1 20, 1900

1/24/1903

First President Jr

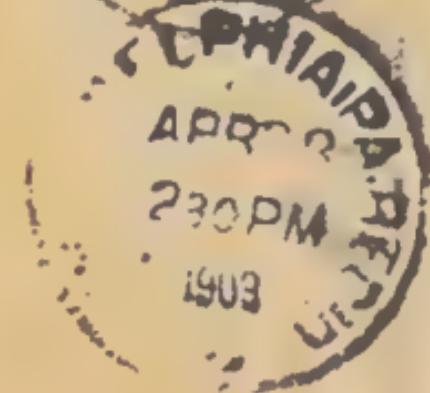

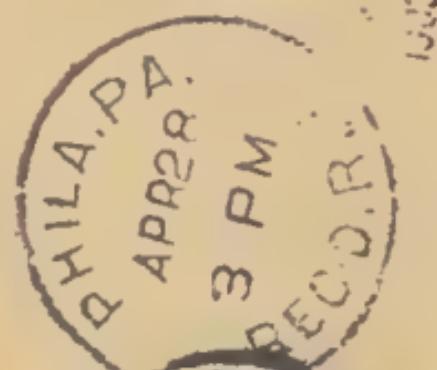

Chapman & Bro

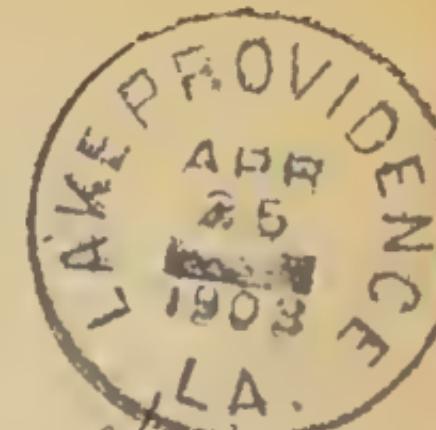

The writer of this quarter pleas
Send it ^{on} will give me good faith them and I will be en courage to get all the bankable old wine & beer
of our faithful R. J. pride

45: Trid.

4-28-03

in retained with Trid.

Chapman & Bro

Philadelphia Pa